Code of Conduct Players

PLAYERS CODE OF CONDUCT

Jarrow F. C. aims to progress to a higher status, to achieve this all personnel involved with the club must show a commitment to this aim. In turn this will benefit everyone especially the most important people 'You the Players'.

Players for Jarrow F.C. must abide by the following Code of Conduct :-

Everyone plays for each other and shows a will to win for the sake of the club and themselves

Club kit (e.g. Polo Tops, Tracksuits, etc.) is to be worn on match days

All players to support our sponsors by attending after match hospitality where appropriate

All players are to attend training sessions

Home match days: -

Players should be at the ground and available for selection at least 30 minutes before kick off time. Any players failing to do this must be prepared to accept being dropped for that game

Away match days: -

Players should be at the pre-arranged meeting point at the time specified by the Manager. Any players failing to do this must be prepared to accept being dropped for that game

Any player booked or sent off for dissent must pay their own fine. Cases of retaliation will be judged by the Management.

If not available for match days or training, players must contact Management with details and in good time. Failure to turn up without prior notice is not acceptable
